MICHAEL SCHANBACHER, AIA

PROJECT MANAGER

Michael has over ten years of experience in Architecture and Landscape architecture offices. His experience has varied from project management for large institutional projects to small-scale restaurants and private residences. At NADAAA he is currently the Project Manager for the Adams Street Branch of the Boston Public Library. Prior to joining NADAAA, he worked at Schwartz/Silver Architects as Project Architect for the 500,000sf addition and renovation to the McCoy Federal Building in Jackson, Mississippi, and as Project Manager for the renovation of the Shain Library at Connecticut College. In his nine-plus years at Schwartz/Silver, he was in a leadership position for a variety of institutional projects including Princeton University, Brown University, and Trinity College in Hartford, CT. Schanbacher holds a Bachelor of Science in Architecture from the University of Virginia and a Master of Architecture from Rice University. He has been a registered Architect in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts since 2009.
